Re: Application of Community Educational
Association for New Non-Commercial
Educational FM Station At Holly Hill, FL
BPED-930316MF
Amendment

Dear Sir/Madam:

I, Jose Mercado, President of applicant Community Educational Association, wish to amend our pending application for a new non-commercial educational FM station to serve Holly Hill, Florida, to include the attached document which more fully explains CEA's commitment to education and how it will use the radio station to advance that commitment. CEA has worked very hard with its counsel over the past 30 to 45 days, since submitting its to prepare this document.

Sincerely yours,

Jose Mercado, President
Community Educational Association

COMMUNITY EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Advancement of Educational Program

Community Educational Association ("CEA") is an educational organization committed to promoting and assisting the various charitable, religious and educational organizations and causes of the area. CEA's educational program will be utilized to increase political and social awareness by improving relations between different cultural groups, with a special focus on Hispanic/Anglo relations and teaming with local community leaders to help members of the community stay aware of issues of importance.

CEA will also work to improve the public's health and safety through its educational program. It will hold forums for teenagers with adult moderators so that issues such as increasing violence and drug use can be discussed openly. CEA will also work with local community groups and schools to sponsor forums/workshops on issues such as health care, bridging the gap between cultures and languages, family life and the importance of staying in school.

CEA will also work with educational leaders to launch a "Radio School" program. Companion written material will be developed for courses that will be offered over CEA's station. The classes will focus on basic skills and knowledge (Basic math, English, Reading Skills, Health, Hygiene, Drug Abuse and Disease Prevention) and will be offered in Spanish and English.

CEA will also work with area schools to offer facility tours and training/internship opportunities for interested students to learn about radio broadcasting.

CEA will keep its programming responsive to the changing issues and concerns of the community by conducting informal ascertainment with community leaders (political, educational, religious and civic).

1

It will offers public affairs and news programming in English and Spanish. Call-in and interview shows will be offered with themes such as adult offering insight to children on how to cope with the problems of growing up (violence, drugs, single-parent households); health professional answering question on current issues (AIDS and "safe sex", drug/alcohol abuse, preventive medicine, child care) and local leaders offering insights on issues of local importance.

In summary, the educational program of the applicant will strengthen the community by offering information to enhance its political, social and moral awareness.

Respectfully submitted,
